

Bespoke Course

With this course we ask you to choose from a number of different course-related options, from which we can design the perfect course for your particular needs.

Once you have chosen from the various options, we will design the course itinerary and provide you with a quote.

This course is suitable for anyone and all ages, in particular families or groups of people looking for a privately designed course focusing on their particular needs.

Foundation Course

This course is designed for those with an interest in China and looking for a taste of the language and culture. The aim of this course is to give you an introduction into Chinese language and culture, with particular focus on the ethnic diversity of China and visiting some of the spectacular scenic spots in Yunnan, including Dali and Lijiang, thus giving you a taste of real China.

Introduction

Bridging the Gap China offer a number of 'travel and learn' experiences encompassing many of China's awe-inspiring, ancient cultural sites with a combined focus on Mandarin language training. Our courses range from shorter, more intensive courses aimed at Mandarin improvement to longer courses, which include a number of excursions combined with continuous Mandarin tuition. We also offer school trips and courses for all ages, which you can create entirely based on your requirements.

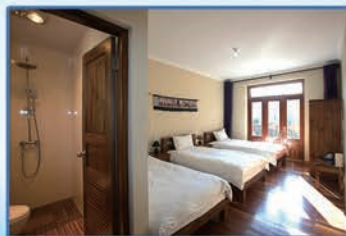

We offer four different courses each of which provides something unique for the traveller, student or China enthusiast!

Gap Year Course

Our gap year course is designed for gap year students with an interest in China and Chinese culture or perhaps someone looking to gain a foundation in the Chinese language before starting with their Chinese studies at university.

Our gap year courses provide classroom teaching, teaching in a more informal setting (e.g. while travelling) and various cultural activities. A teacher will accompany the students throughout the course and will be on hand to answer any questions as well as provide useful review exercises for the students.

One to One

A course suited to those wishing to begin learning Chinese, fast track their Chinese learning or to reinforce their existing Chinese language skills. New challenges everyday, constant supervised review and real time language practice will ensure that you will improve quicker than you thought possible, whilst travelling and immersing yourself in real China.
